

Programme for Gathering at the Stones Glen Innes 1st April 2017

- 9.30am Arrive at the Stones
- Morning Tea of Bannocks with honey and butter at 10.30.
- 10.30 -11 am Scottish pipes Catriona Bliss and dancers (Charlotte Biss & Jessica Biss).
- Catriona and Jack will then organise us for some dancing for those who are energetic.
- 1.00pm Walk and Talk around the stones by local historian.
- 1-30pm Lunch in the Crofters Cottage a replica of the church at Culloden and a further talk by local historian.
- At lunch we will be having an Outlander Bingo. Full card prize is a Tartan Rug kindly donated by Jeanette McCabe.
- I expect lunch to go, I'd say to 3.30pm at least, this includes speeches, games, historical talk & lantern decorating.
- After lunch free time to settle into accommodation or dress for dinner or you can stay to practise a Druid's Lantern Dance to be performed after dinner.
- 6.30pm BBQ dinner with mixed salads and meats (see menu). This will be outside the Crofter's Cottage under gazebos with lights.
- We will finish the day off with the Druid's Lantern Dance around the stones then head back to town to the Grand Central Hotel for the option of a wee dram before retiring to our accommodations.
- Anybody with special diet requirements please message either me, Colin Wood or Ann Blannin-Ferguson
- Cost of all food and entertainment $70, pay on the day either myself or Ann-Blannin Ferguson
